HAWAII IS WAKING UP

Prince Kuhio Has Extra Large Crowds Present.

Republicanism is having a day on the big island and from every side are heard the cheers which are greeting Prince Kuhio Kalaniana'ole, the candidate of the party, who is now on the Kau or Kona side of the island, looking about for Home Rulers to convert.

Every report says that there has been a large attendance wherever the Prince has spoken, and that his followers are gaining ground every day. One letter which was received in the Claudine's mail Saturday, says of the tour:

"Upon the Prince's arrival at Hilo a week ago, we held a big meeting which was attended by all the local candidates for the legislature and despite the sitting of the Senatorial Committee the same night, it proved a great success. The Prince and Archie Mahaulu went to Mahukona, where we met Kalauo-kalani and his party who endeavored to hold rival meetings, but the natives refused to listen to their 'nonsense' as they said. Holstein was there and after the close of our meeting the gathering gave three cheers for the Prince and were eager to shake his hand."

"Next day we left for Waimea where J. D. Paris met us, continuing with the party throughout the trip. At the Waimea meeting, everybody present except perhaps two or three, pledged themselves by a rising vote in favor of the Prince and the Republican ticket. It was a great demonstration and pleased the Prince, who is hopeful of success in this district. We found a Home Rule meeting in progress at Kukuihaele which broke up on our arrival and the Prince took possession, making a strong impression. Everywhere along the line of the route of the Prince we were met with an enthusiastic crowd, anxious to know why the Prince had turned from Home Rule to Republicanism. It appears the Home Rulers have tried to make the people believe the Queen is unfriendly to him, but he disabused their minds on that score."

"All along the road, wherever a handful of natives were gathered, our party would stop to let the Prince speak to the crowd. We had in our party three local candidates and Cupid, who, of course, was the center of attraction and met with ovations everywhere. At Laupahoehoe the schoolhouse was packed and at the close of Kuhio's remarks, again the expression of the people was given by a rising vote."

"From the enthusiastic demonstrations and reception given to the Prince, the prospects for a successful election look bright and we are all much encouraged."

STIRRING ADVICE.

The Y. M. C. A. yesterday began its indoor Sunday afternoon religious C. A.'s campaign of education. He said that there was a good attendance. President Griffiths, the new head of the Oahu College, delivered an interesting address on Education and Business, thus practically commencing the Y. M. C. A.'s campaign of education. He said in part:

"In my work at the college I am endeavoring to bring the fact home to my pupils that they may early decide where their natural inclinations lie and bend all their energies to serve them. You live at a time when your success lies practically in your hands. It is an age of high privilege and bright hopes; a time that is stirring, active, enterprising; a period characterized by strong feeling and impetuous impulses. The combination in a man that counts, is energy of action and brains. The means of improving and forming character and of acquiring and exerting a useful influence in the world were never so abundant, and furthermore were never so near the grasp of every man and woman."

"A boundless field of enterprise spreads out before the young men of our country and they have only to enter in and reap for themselves. I have no need to impress upon you the seriousness of life's business. It is a privilege to live today. You have all read how Roosevelt defines the American citizen of the hour—men of courage, honesty and common sense. Those are the kind we want here and those are the kind which we hope this work of education will help to produce. There is no cowardice so hopeless as the cowardice of ignorance, and no courage so useless as courage of ignorance."

WHAT IS PAIN BALM?

Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment and, while adapted to all the ordinary uses of a liniment, has qualities which distinguish it from other remedies of this class. Pain Balm is especially beneficial for rheumatism. Thousands of cases can be cited in which it has effected a cure when the sufferer had previously tried the best medical service without securing relief. Pain Balm is positively guaranteed to give relief in the most severe cases of chronic or acute rheumatism.

Pain Balm heals bruises, burns and scalds in less time than any other treatment. It is "antiseptic" that is, it prevents putrefaction and by so doing, generally prevents an unrightly scar remaining after the injury is healed. For lame back, lumbago and neuralgia, Pain Balm has no equal. It has the quality of "getting to the right spot." No sufferer from these distressing affections should defer a trial of this remedy. One application gives relief. Try it. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents, sell it.
